Blues Paintings by Earl Klatzel

I received some news about this artist and few of his paintings few moments ago from my old pal <http://reaggaepsyc.blogspot.ca/>. While not exactly particularly 'visionary' or 'psychedelic', the art of Earl Klatzel ( born 1957 in Calgary, AB, Canada ) deserves a little attention at least by all the people who love blues.

In fact, Earl's oil paintings, a heartfelt tribute to blues, are entirely dedicated to famous blues and rock-blues musicians and to the early glory days of this immortal kind of music. If all that says to you something, make a visit to Earl's site.
